Im not a bitch. I have an incurable autoimmunne disease. And im not old. I worked in a video store in college to pay my rent & was a theater major. I read allot of plays & watched allot of movies so ebertainment is why i want a future. This is the x generation. https://en.m.wikipedia.org/wiki/Generation_X

Blake Shields is an x generation. Anyone from the age of 37 to 50 is.. Not 45. Im sick of being classified with the baby bommers or for people trying to shove 50 year olds into my life.

If Jordan Marks or Blake Shields is secretly Gay i was theater in college and both of them must be bi because both of them hit on me. I dated Jordan in 2003 when he was background on Deadwood. He was 19 but im being attacked online & accused of being a pedophile or an abuser of old people when my parents destroyed my teeth and my father has one day told me he knows i did nothing wrong on a set and another tkme told me im stupid and dumn and ignorant. He has abused me like that my ENTIRE life and yet im an honor student at SMC.

This is Jordan. He worked with me on Cellular. Got fired because he kept tickling me when the crew was trying to give us instructions. Then showed up on Deadwood where he knew i was working. He asked me one day if i was into women. I told him NO. He got mad and stopped talking to me & to this day i do not get why though i was not wanting a relationship with him. Our dating was not a mistake. Just didnt work. Different. It was 2003 and i was 13 years younger. Not a cougar or old enough to be his mother. And he was not under age though the girls from deadwood told people he was. Jordan Marks

This is a letter from Blake Shields. Blake is late 30s and my generation. Not yours. I loved him once & he knew it. My union blacklisted me in 2012. Yet Blake was on my FB in 2013. Ive known where he is and what he does since 2013 yet ive seen him only 2 times. Ive even been invited to a church he was a part of in Venice but refused to go. Had peolle he knew offer me work. But if he does not invite me im not going where he is. But im not going to be abused out of LA acting or the industry. And he liked me once despite what ever hot bitch who is with him or wants him who keeps threatening me on Twitter. See attached.

In 2008 i was tripped on a set so bad i could not bed my legs for a week. JT Thiboreaux? A stand in from Carnival was on set that day and i was told if i did not run all out id be fired. Within an hour after that i was in the hospital.

Jeremy Gilbteathe tried to rape me in 2006. He kept getting into my space. He had a drug problem. He was Nick Stahl's stand in who later also came out with a problem. Based on this essay by Blake Shields, so did he.

I do not hate Blake for his problem unless he is a part of this and lying. I do not cheat or throw myself at men or go to bars & pick up strangers. However if he is on Jeremy's side i will not forgive him. Jeremy's wife Alaina Filo went to my college McDaniel in Maryland but after i did. I was an honor student there. I was an actor there and some of my friends were Gay. I dated a guy who looked like Blake Shields at least in height and build who was the lead in every show. Actor. I also though graduated a virgin. I was not gay. I just was scared of being forced to have kids and be a housewife.

In addition i was involved with John Ponzio whose ex is Cynthia Youngblood on Grays. In 2009 a year after i was told by Grays i was on a list. John wanted to meet with me. I refused. I wanted to be back on sets. I could not go back to being a legal temp. Lawyers would nkt let me take acting classes let alone do theater. Seriously i got let go from a temp job once because i chose to go to my acting class as opposed to working all night on organizing my bossed address book even though i had no other projects to do. I will not Give up wanting to be on a set acting. I would have chosen to die of cancer if i knew america would favor rapists over education and honesty.

If you do nit believe me. This blog contains the emails between John Ponzio & myself. An email from the director friend of Jeremy Gilbreathe telling me to forgive him. Not accusing me of lying. That bastard probaby bragged about what he did and said i wanted it, which is BS. And An email i wrote Assaf Cohen who is on the union board in 2011 telling him i wanted his friend David Lawtence to leave me alone. David asked me out and i turned him down...Assaf, David & Blake were all in the cast of Heroes . yep i knew or met actually about 7 members of that cast.

Yeah Jetemy who you might classify as young since he is 38 violated me and got to build a career and im going to be done at SMC and unless im allowed to be an actor im going to die of an autoimmune disease because i do not want more school. I do not want to direct or be in the industry living with what was done to me because of men who violated me, tripped me on a set, and destroyed years of me working on sets to prove i was good there.
