Anyone who can read your blog can read what other people wrote to you.

People in the industry that you've posted their emails tell you that.

You are not on a 'list' there's no such thing, you were told that by casting agents & others in the industry.

You didn't get banned from sets because 'you said you were a lawyer' you've actually posted the official documents saying you was removed for 'threatening to kill yourself' 'being aggressive towards people'

No one can influence Twitter to ban you, not even your father or me, you were aggressively tweeting loads of people & you had numerous warnings over the years, you yourself have posted what Twitter told you, when you've broken their rules you get banned.

You broke the Twitter rules, it takes a certain amount of violations to get your account taken away.

You apparently had several already, you posted the times your account got locked & Twitter notified you which tweets you should delete.

You were sending many harassing tweets to the same people over and over again.

Twitter told you that you broke their rules. You had your account taken away because you didn't follow their rules.

Twitter tells you if you keep violating their rules your account will be shut down.

Anyone who knows anyone you hate you go and send them abusive messages/emails & make posts about them, for example "so and so is friends with Jeremy so they must have had a hand with blacklisting me and abusing me" No you are the troll and the abuser.

I'm not your stalker, I've only been on Twitter since Sept 2020 & only known of you just a few months later, I'm not stalking you, anyone can get the idea of your life from your numerous posts, blogs, videos that you posts, literally everywhere online.

You claim you have never abused or threatened your parents, you have posted videos & emails stating you have!

You think you're being silenced, how many blogs, websites, social media sites do you have?

You lie & you don't even know how much you lie but re-read everything you've posted, documents, phone calls, emails, the email that your friend told you she had been raped for real & that you were horrible? Go back through your website & read it.

Listen woman, I am not a troll, not a bully & not a stalker.
You are describing yourself.

When I reported your Twitter account I did my research, I don't just report people without finding out for myself whether they deserve it, and you certainly do.

I'm not in the entertainment industry and I don't work for Twitter.

I've only been on Twitter since September 2020 so I've not been 'harassing' you for years, but it does show that I'm just yet another person that is trying to show you up for the nasty bully that you are.

You putting all the evidence of what you've been doing for decade now, everyone's emails & messages in reply to your horrid emails & messages, anyone with common sense can get to the same conclusion that you have a serious problem with EVERYONE and you need help.

You do this bizarre linkage to people that if they know a certain person then they are guilty to you, and they deserve your relentless campaign of disgusting harassment, and that's just bullshit.

You have sent me & many other people hundreds of abusive emails, people have asked you not to email/contact them anymore.

You are racist and just because you are a small percentage of Jew or Black doesn't make you an ally of them, you still are nasty towards them, and yes you are a racist. You are trying your best to see if I am Black and/or a Jew, just so you can fit your narrative of them ruining your life.

And you are so horrible blaming everybody since 2008 that they have made you suicidal, if you lost anyone in your life to suicide you wouldn't blame everyone, that's emotionally manipulative.

You're the only person that has ruined your acting career, and you've posted all the evidence on all your blogs and social media.

And I don't want to hear about your bleeding vagina, if you can't see how inappropriate that is then you're crazy, and I'm not a prude.

Stop being aggressively rude to your parents, anyone who reads your social media & blogs can see how many times you've threatened them, you are nasty.

The way you freak out at people just because they follow your social media, you don't know how social media works, good grief you idiot.

You go on about wanting to physically hurt people, that's frightening but you can't see it.

And I don't judge people on their looks or wealth, I judge people on if they are a good person or not, and you certainly are NOT a nice person.

You complain you're being silenced, what a joke as you still have plenty of social media accounts and blogs.

Also stop doxxing people, you are putting peoples addresses on your website, take them down or you will be sued by them, do you want your address all over the Internet?

Get a life and stop harassing people you are delusional & paranoid.

You was aggressive towards people on sets, many times. All you do is shout at people, you don't even realise you're doing it.

You accuse women of looking at you funnily, you thought they were laughing at you. They wasn't.

You accuse all men of flirting/hitting on you, they wasn't.

You act as if you're better than everyone, and you tell people too. Nothing worse than someone who's self importance & cocky & bringing people around you down. Delusion of grandeur is what they call it. It was on your mental health evaluation paperwork when you was taken in on 3/7/2012.

You accuse everyone of talking about you behind your back, you are not that special.

You sent me death threats, you are just proving that you are a nasty human.

SAG didn't want you at any meetings because of your "ongoing pattern of inappropriate and disruptive behaviour at SAG meeting and events" This is why you're not getting work as an actor.

If you drop your hate & concentrate on trying to get your life back on track instead of sending emails/messages/doing videos/posting on your blog all the hate you send you might sort yourself out. You are ruining your career by this, you can't blame anyone else.

The list once again-

You think every man is hitting on you. No they're not.

You think every woman is being a bitch to you. No they're not.

You think everyone is talking about you behind your back. No they're not.

Every time you overhear people talking you think they're talking about you. No they're not.

You think you have been put on a list/being blacklisted. No you were told by many people there's no such thing as "put on a list/being blacklisted"

You have all the email/messages evidence on your stupid blogs/websites/social media sent to you by so many people trying to put you straight & say you are twisting the narrative to suit you.

You think everyone who disagrees with you is a "bully" No it's just a difference of opinion. Someone sending you an emoji can trigger you & you think they are harassing you/being a bully.

You have been sending everyone and anyone harassing emails/messages/phone calls thinking because "such and such a person" knows your "abuser" they must have something to do with your life being shit. No you have emails sent from people that state that they have nothing to do with whatever shit you go on about & they don't know what you are on about.

More and more of your industry friends that you send constant harassing tweets to are starting to block you, even the known/famous people.

I notice that your Twitter industry friends don't tend to reply to your complaints because they don't want to be at the wrong end of you because you make peoples lives help with your constant victim blaming & hateful tweets. But they reply to your tweets about non bullshite stuff.

You think you were put into a mental institution because you said you were a lawyer. No it was because you were threatening people, shouting aggressively at them, telling people you were going to commit suicide & you had delusions of grandeur. You posted on your website/blogs the actual 5150 paperwork that states the latter.

They didn't put you in an institution for saying you was a lawyer, you were put into an institution because you were "hyperverbal, paranoid, delusional grandiose, that people were 'killing you' and you 'feared for your life' and that you were a danger to yourself as you stated you wanted to commit suicide" you posted the 51/50 paperwork yourself.

I bet you're the kind of person that when you're in a conversation with someone else you don't listen & hear what the other person is saying because you are either talking over them/talking down to them/too busy thinking what you are going to say next.

Stop telling everyone you are better than them, your ego is ugly & so is your personality.

Nobody is telling you what job to have. Nobody is telling you what man to date.

You have been blaming everyone that they make you suicidal, since 2008? Probably earlier, you posted on your thousands of shit on your website/blogs.
That's emotional blackmail.

You want to sue everyone including me, that's laughable & you have no grounds on anyone you've mentioned over the years, otherwise you'd have been successful by now & won a court case.

Even Ronan Farrow & the FBI & Police ignores your emails/messages/tweets.

You don't talk to people, you shout at them, go back and watch your YouTube videos of your phone conversations. Aggressive, rude and shouting at people.

Go rewatch your TikTok videos and see how condescending and rude you are.

You broke the rules & regulations on Twitter several times!! they banned you, I don't have a fucking magic red button that deletes Twitter accounts when I want.

Also you are not connecting to people, you are alienating yourself from them, all because you keep emailing & tweeting the same stuff hundreds of times blaming people that have a slight connection to that Jeremy bloke.

Can you not see you are making it worse for yourself?

If you had any real friends left they would help you with this.

Go and get the law involved, you've been harassing people since at least 2007, all the tweets & emails you've sent to whatever law enforcement & you can't see they are ignoring you, besides your local law enforcement know about you already & everyone has seen your YouTube video of you being rude & cussing them out.

By the way that was me that sent them round to do a welfare check, the video you posted on YouTube May 2021 as you constantly tell everyone that you're gonna commit suicide, I informed Twitter & they helped contact the cops.

Your account was NOT banned to protect a sexual assault. What Jeremy did to you, which a sexual assault and not a rape, is between you and him, no one else.

The most alarming thing was wanting to tell Jeremy Gilbreathe's young children that their father is a sexual abuser, molester and rapist and wanting to notify the children's department officials to warn them he might molest them. what is wrong with you? His kids must be under the age of 10, you are sick.

Your account was shut down by Twitter because you were constantly tweeting & harassing people that had nothing to do with it.

You send hundreds of tweets accusing people of doing stuff they haven't, over and over again.

The reason you keep getting kicked out of groups/videos deleted because you are vile to everyone, you talk down to them, belittle them, are aggressive towards them, post their emails addresses/addresses & even threaten them with violence.

You post bizarre rants accusing people of things, nothing which makes sense to whoever is on the wrong end of your wrath of destruction.

You constantly target people that have nothing to do with you.

I have NOT destroyed you, your business or anything else, you have been doing that all on your own.

Stop blaming people for everything and stop harassing, stalking and bullying innocent people.

You do this bizarre '6 degrees of Kevin Bacon' thing where anyone connected to anyone & everyone must be guilty of doing something to you.

That is delusional.

Go on and post the emails of support to blame everyone else from your friends then.

Send my emails to multiple government agencies then, the ones you've already sent has been ignored by everyone.

Stop harassing, bullying and stalking people.

You really got angry because your "parents had their dentist not clean my teeth"
That's spoilt brat behaviour, why can't you get a dentist yourself?

And you are really harassing a children's charity in Kenya?
How sick are you?

Once again stop harassing, bullying and stalking people.

I have never said anything nasty about the cancer or the sexual assault, don't put words into my mouth.
And what woman hasn't had an unfortunate & disgusting assault like that, because most of us women have.

You are constantly sending hundreds of harassment emails full of delusions, lies, defamatory statements & private information.

You are extremely dangerous and paranoid, yet again I ask you to get help with your problems.

GO AND GET HELP.
