Actually I never said I was trolling MAGA,
Here's a screenshot of who I was reporting on Twitter.
Best thing that has come out of all this is a friendship with Lee.

To Laura Ann Tull

Believe it or not I had been spending many months reporting Twitter accounts that have been harassing people, sending death threats, suicidal tweets, racist & homophobic harassment and tweets, quite a few Qanon accounts, abhorrently abusive & vulgar tweets and things like that.

I came across yours because you are the one that had been sending multiple harassing tweets, suicide threats and found you had sent many over many

I didn't go to your YouTube channel & post things. I didn't slander you or act like you couldn't be on sets anymore.

You don't seem to get that I beat fucking cancer to be an actor. I chose to live because I loved being creative & having a rich inner imagination. I created artistichope because to me art & beauty are more important than $ and crappy things like cheap blankets and stupid dumb monster cars.

The world is made better by art poetry music & good stories. It is made worse by lies slander & abuse.

You could keep attacking me for the next 20 and I'd still want to be an actor. I'd still want my mental health back and that's not going to happen until I get justice from sag aftra & they publicly apologize to me for having the police wrongfully institutionalize. He'll I'd like the police to apologize because i really did go to fucking law school.

My life isn't about finding a husband. My life was about being able to use my creativity. I like books more than people.

There isn't a man on this planet who will make me sit down & shut up.

I am everything I say I am lee. You. Hide behind a fake name

I would tell the DOJ I'd never give a flying fuck about being hired or having a job if I can't grow as an actor and build a life in the arts. I am not interested in working in politics or in working in traditional news. I like my inner child. I hate you lee. Nothing now will change that ever

You need to talk to a therapist and tell them how you've treated me. Because you are an abuser. My father can't change me. You a stranger lee. You are nothing but a psycho stalking me who needs to control my body and voice.

Are you a lawyer lee? Because you fucking can't speak for everyone. You should not have the right to silence my emails or my social content or prevent my speech.

I want to "rant" on line. I want to tell the world I'm here. I didn't get As in school Lee because I want to be put in a corner & to not exist.

When I die I fucking want to be remembered and not by some pathetic husband who neded me to make him hole. I'm not whole if I can't achieve things. I want an A in acting Lee. I want to be remembered as smart and not as the psycho you want me to be seen as.

I want to accomplish important things. Not be behind a Man. I want to be known as capable. I'm not here to be married to some one who makes me feel inferior because I'm a woman.

I don't fucking care what guys can do if they don't respect me as being capable of fucking doing things without their help or approval. I'm fucking tired of people thinking I fucking just want to be under a man. I was a straight A student in high school. I didn't get As in school with the help of some guy and his dick

<https://youtu.be/5LjoXShGKMI>

I'm so sick of sexism. I am so sick of people wanting me to be in a relationship. I fucking don't want my life revolving around someone else. People die. I need to be able to be on my own because I can't rely on anyone to fucking treat me with the love and respect I deserve. I'd rather stand on my own.

what i find interesting Lee is that Cassandra at SMC focuses on what happened at SMC. I filed charges against the school in January. I was being trolled for being in film 33 class to the extent I felt I had to drop the class. I complained about Guy Noland making sexist comments. Carrasco said it's sometimes a woman's fault if she's assaulted and implied I caused an accident. I had to retake editing classes because the industry dropped final cut making my digital media cert useless.

Just because smc is an institution of education that does not mean they are not capable of discrimination or even abuse of their own honor system. Just look at USC and cheating scandals.

I did not do anything deserving to be violently removed from the campus. Carrie Finklea now works for a Fox producer. It was a Fox producer Guy Noland had come to his class when Carrie visited it. I was taking advanced screen writing and she wasn't. She was in film 33 every time I tried to take it from 2016 to 2017 & seemed to produce every film from that class for 2 years. SMC does know how unethical that looks. She was using the school to make movies to build a career & SMC a public college was letting her do this. I retook classes because of a change in technology. I just wanted to Take film 33 without being trolled & abused & called a problem for reporting sexual harassment.

I actually feel SMC owes me a film cert for what they wrongfully did to me. I had a GPA of a 3.6 and they shouldn't be policing my life or career choices either.

I came to Cali to be an actor & work in entertainment industry. Carrie finklea has no right to tell me I have to give it up because I should have made it by now

I want the world to know how horrible I think SMC is as an institution of higher education. I was one of the smartest students on your campus. You sold me out for a stuck up narcissistic celebrity.

Carrie I'm not a fucking lesbian. I'm a feminist. I would not date a college age coed. I had a college degree already but I had the right to be at SMC to learn to be a film maker. It was not a crime for me to go back to school. Nor was it a crime for me to not be using my law degree. I did go to school.

Lee I was a gifted & talented social studies student & could read at the level of a 12th grader in the 6th grade. I was trained to be a journalist in high school, college, & law school. I've forgotten more about history than most people ever know. I was an AP American history student. I don't know everything. But I understand more than your willing to accept.

I'm sick of you Lee slandering me as not being capable when you helped blacklisted me from the only industry I could ever be successful in.

Read my muckrack bio. I trained to be a freelance writer to. Law school required I write about legal stuff. Grad school I wrote about performing arts & papers on censorship. Which FYI what twitter did wouldn't be lawful if done by the government. What I said was not illegal speech. I know because it's what I wrote my thesis in grad school on. Obscenity & what constitutes offensive speech.

My area of legal expertise Lee was communications & 1st amendment. I worked for WALA.

<https://waladc.org/>

It's on my transcript from American University. It states I did an internship with WALA.

I just called a guy I went to law school with who In 2010 worked for the CIA. I recorded the voice mail

I want the feds to investigate you lovern & my father.

Subject: Re: Demotix...

Really Lee. Did he know you are GOP?

I worked for al Snyder. Man who started the communications office in the white house. One of his clients was the space foundation. We did the media for the annual awards for inventions based on space tech

You are a discriminatory bully.

There are different kinds of intelligence Lee. I'm guessing that means you know the star trek people in the industry. Science without psychology leads to inhumanity.

Intelligence without emotional intelligence leads to abuse & psychotic destructive science.

The only area of science I liked was physics. Easy A in high school. But I know my limits Lee. You were so smart you decided I didn't have a future acting?

Without knowing anything about my history or experiences. You know I was blacklisted and I didn't do anything to deserve it .

Knowing science Lee doesn't make you an expert in psychology or mental health.

Oh right I'm special needs? I'm stupid as far as you are concerned. You rented a car Lee to be on a set. I question your rationality on that one.

I thrived on sets Lee. I'm a better actor than you. I guarantee that. It takes more Lee than intellect to act. It takes understanding your own inner self. It takes understanding human behavior. Where you know science. I know social studies history & art. I get cut off from what I know. I wanted to work this entire time. I'm not Lee capable of doing science at the nasa level. Get a hint though. Most of the actors on star trek are more like me than you.

Again Lee I'm not going to get a job or make $ unless I can be doing things that make me feel respected & intelligent. I don't take kindly to arrogant men who think science alone makes them special. I'm not attracted to arrogant intelligence.

I'm attracted to the Raoul Wallenbergs & Banskys & actors who try to make the world better through their art. People with the human touch. Not just brainiacs

For someone who claims they worked with hawkins your inability to even admit you may be wrong about anything you've said or done to me says volumes about your true intellectual level.

I just realized if you know hawkins. Do you know musk? Larry elison? My phone being hacked. All the tech issues. You?

Gilbreathe has worked with William Shatner

Though I have to. I was a regular on Boston Legal. Well they would use Me every few months.

I'm destroyed Because your science brain can't fathom how I could be successful at acting. Because acting requires a different kind of intellect Lee.

I'm not special needs.

Mt ex boyfriend was a biomedical engineer. I also dated an airforce navigator.

I can't find anything online Lee about you & hawkins?
