Reader Intro

Actor Profile

Hi. Thank you. ACTING IS TEAM WORK. I am Laura Ann and I am a SAG AFTRA actor with a Theater Degree, Masters in Performing Arts Management. I am PHI BETA KAPPA and MENSA qualified. My brain likes puzzle games and sees patterns. I analyse behavior and language and love to figure out the subtext in a script. I am ALPHA PSI OMEGA (THEATER FRATERNITY). I am not a MATH WHIZ.

Acting styles: I trained in Stanislavski, Uta Hagen (summer cert from American Acaedmy of Dramatic arts), some Meisner, and I had Michael Shurtlief book (Audition Techniques). I am open to improvise or participate in exercises at your direction based on your training.

Things I can do for you:

* Read and I can jump right in though do not expect the first time to be perfect. I try.

*Script Analysis. I took my first Script writing class at UNITED STATES GRAD SCHOOL IN DC. I trained to be a reader taking a class at UCLA extension in 2003. That led me to judging scripts for the Script Writer Network. I am not a member but for years I attended their open events and also volunteered. I also studied STORY ANALYSIS at Santa Monica college as part of a certificate in DIGITAL MEDIA. I have read SYD FIELD and have explored "SAVE THE CAT." Vogler's Writer's Journey is my mindset. I also used to attend meetings of the New Playwrites Foundation and cold read scripts and plays for the group. I also recommend checking out JV Hart and his methodology . He wrote both DRACULA and HOOK.

*Industry HELP: I am not an agent or manager but if you have questions I might be able to help or at least be a sounding board. While training in Digital Media I also studied film production. I have worked crew professionally as a set photographer, stand in, production assistant, and as a student as a set design and props management, and I got an A in cinematography. I have also directed two shorts. I live in LOS ANGELES so LA advice also is a possibility.

Time zone Pacific and I am up until 11 my time. Also I started working as a reader on here on June 13, 2023. I am loving it and all the talent I have helped.

About me:

I have a THEATER DEGREE from McDaniel College and I trained in TV acting while working on a MASTERS in Performing arts at AMERICAN University in DC. My college acting teacher was an expert in Eugene O'Neill so I am familiar with modern drama. I also studied the classics. I took a Comedy class at Santa Monica College, and a Commercial class with Cyb Barnstable and was asked to study in an acting class she did out of here home (Kellan Lunz & Adreinne Zee were scene partners). I have had some Improv training or workshops at Second City. I was part of an acting group in Hollywood started by Adrian Paul. I have a summer certificate from the AMERICAN ACADEMY OF DRAMATIC ARTS.

I have also trained to cold read at various casting workshops and teachers in Los Angeles. I have done on camera work in classes at TVI and with David Rountree. I have also taken on camera classes at AFI. I have worked on TV and Film sets as background, stand in, photo double and actor. I have been in two SAG projects and one non union short in film festivals. All three shorts were in the horror thriller genres. While at SANTA MONICA COLLEGE I trained in LESSAC.

See my credits on IMDB and my acting reel.

I am also ARTISTICHOPE.com and Artistic Hope is my business name and stands for HOLISTIC ORGANIC PHILANTHROPIC EXPRESSION.

I love procedurals, thrillers, horror (not slasher or slutty), Shakespeare, Dr Who, Mystery, Sherlock Edgar Allen Poe, Anne Rice, Vampires, Horses (Wild Horse Advocate), Dogs, psychology, Period stories,

Human rights.

I have a law degree but I have nothing to do with the legal profession. I have played a lawyer on TV. My focus in law was first amendment and communications law. I love the PROFESSIONAL CODE OF CONDUCT for JOURNALISTS. TRUTH AND FACTS.

I am originally from MARYLAND but LOS ANGELES has been my home since 2002. I am a breast cancer
